AILBHE LARKIN

GRAPHIC DESIGNER/VISUAL COMMUNICATOR

Hello!

I am a passionate young creative who strives to push my own boundaries on the daily. I give my best, every single time. I am craving a collaborative and energetic environment where I will be working amongst other creative and passionate souls on common goals.
I believe that great design has the power to influence the world in both small and monumental ways and I plan to find my place in the industry where I can proudly be a part of those changes. Bottom line is I truly care. I'm driven and I'm devoted and I'm now more ready than ever to send those boundaries flying.
